AT THE THEATERS

Theatrical Calendar.

Gennett.
Tonight—"Gay New York."
Friday night—Tim Murphy.
Monday night—"Forty-five Minutes From Broadway."
New Phillips.
All Week—Dora Woodruff Stock Company.

"Gay New York"—Gennett.

"Gay New York," the musical comedy of substance and originality after its unprecedented run at one of the leading Berlin playhouses, and subsequent unbroken record of triumphs throughout the German provinces, was readily seized upon by enterprising American management as a vehicle of uncommon farcical strength and veracity, one having a tangible plot and purpose to guide its laugh-provoking dialogue and episodes. It was but natural that the immensely funny scenes and incidents needed an English speaking environment that this wholly important consideration was kept well in mind is best told from the overwhelming fact that it has been treated to. As a still further proof of its deserving character an organization of extraordinary excellence was provided, and which, besides numbering fifty or more talented people in all the various departments of musical comedy desirability, offers the highly entertaining services of several noted artists, whose reputation are sufficient guarantee for all that belongs to progressive fun and charming music. "Gay New York" thus amply prepared, will doubtless reach the cordial appreciation of a large audience at the Gennett tonight.

"The Pit"—Gennett.

Wm. A. Brady's colossal production of "The Pit" will be the next attraction at the Gennett Friday evening, November 30.

tion at the Gennett Friday evening, November 30.

This play, which is presented on a very elaborate scale, is one of the greatest successes the American stage has known for years.

Tim Murphy—Gennett.

Tim Murphy, Dorothy Sherrod and their splendid company are this season giving to even greater success than when presented some years ago that delightful comedy of character study and pathetic truthfulness, "Old Innocence," which was always conceded to be one of the most praiseworthy offerings in a repertoire that included many of the most entertaining comedies given the stage. This will be the attraction at the Gennett on next Saturday night.

"45 Minutes From Broadway"—Gennett.

"Forty-five Minutes From Broadway" will be seen in this city next Monday night at the Gennett.

An audience of large size greeted the Woodruff Company at the New Phillips last night and was delighted with the combined bill of repertoire and vaudeville. "The Altar of Love," a stirring western play was acceptably presented, the company being the strongest and best Miss Woodruff has ever brought to Richmond. Ladies will be admitted free again to night in order to give those who could not attend last night opportunity to take advantage of this offer. Prices for the Thanksgiving matinee will be twenty cents for reserved seats and ten cents for the gallery. The bill this afternoon is "Girl From the East" and tonight "Little Princess."

It rarely fails to cure rheumatism because it supplies the blood with the necessary substance to absorb the poison of rheumatism-uric acid. That is what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. A. G. Luken & Co.

GOLD AT BOTTOM OF SEA

IN HULL OF WRECKED SHIP

Eastern Indiana Capitalists Get Permission From Mexican Government to Seek for Treasure Thought to be on Colima Coast.

[Publishers' Press.]

Mexico City, Nov. 26.—B. F. Richardson, a capitalist of Philadelphia, and C. W. Johnston, a Delaware man, secured from the Mexican government a concession for the recovery of gold that remains in the hull of the Golden Gate, a ship that was beached on the coast of Colima, a short distance from Manzanillo, in 1861. Johnston recently left San Francisco for the scene of the wreck, accompanied by divers and other assistants.

The Golden Gate was on the way from San Francisco to New York and carried nearly $1,500,000 gold coin for New York banks. While heading toward Manzanillo fire broke out aboard the vessel and in an attempt to save the passengers the ship was run ashore. However, nearly 200 passengers were either burned to death or drowned.

Of the amount aboard the ship between $800,000 and $900,000 was recovered some time later. It is believed there still exists in the hull of the vessel at least $500,000 gold.

Linton Indiana Man Loses at Game of Poker and Blows Off Head of Man Who Won his Money—300 Miners Idle.

[Publishers' Press.]

Linton, Ind., Nov. 26.—After having killed William Waters, a rich merchant, in a poker game here, Louis Shulley, who had the reputation of being wealthy, sought refuge in the shaft of a mine and, armed with a shotgun, defied police to arrest him. Before going into the mine he procured sufficient provisions to last him several days. When a policeman attempted to descend for Shulley a bullet whistled up the shaft and he yelled that he would kill anyone who tried to enter. Shulley lost all his cash and all his property in the poker game with Waters. After quitting the place he returned with a shotgun and blew off his opponent's head then fled to the mine. Until he is captured 300 miners will be idle.
